Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Kory K. Lindsey, DOB: 8/22/78, of Beloit, Wisconsin, pleaded guilty today in U.S. District Court in Madison to distributing heroin on March 17, 2006.

Lindsey and his co-defendants, Andrew Henderson, DOB: 5/18/83, of Beloit, and Shimika Latimer Lindsey, DOB: 3/16/78, of Chicago, Illinois, and 19 other individuals were indicted on May 10, 2006, for their involvement in the distribution of narcotics in Rock County. Henderson pleaded guilty and has been sentenced to 10 years in prison for his involvement in this case. Shimika Lindsey is presently scheduled for trial on January 22, 2006.

Chief U.S. District Judge Barbara B. Crabb scheduled sentencing for December 7, 2006. Lindsey faces a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison, a $1,000,000 fine, and at least three years of supervised release after the completion of his prison term. Lindsey's prison term will be served without the possibility of parole.

The charges against Lindsey were the result of an investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Janesville Police Department, the Beloit Police Department, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the State Line

Area Narcotics Team (SLANT), the Wisconsin Department of Justice, Division of Criminal Investigations - Narcotics Bureau, and the Drug Enforcement Administration. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Paul W. Connell.
